To whom it may concern,

Today I received the memorandum and order for my claim 17-CV-3053, that I filed on 4/12/17. United States District Judge Pamela K. Chen ordered the dismissal of my complaint against the Legal Aid Society, citing it is "not a state actor amenable to suit under Section 1983." I write to you in regards to amending my complaint, instead of the Legal Aid Society as the defendant, may I request that the attorney that represented the Legal Aid Society be the defendant instead? His name is Steven Wasserman, civil attorney. If I cannot change the defendant, please inform me how to remedy this situation. I was told by a lawyer to sue the Legal Aid Society, not the attorney responsible for the legal malpractice, and I cannot file a new claim since the two year period to file has expired. Thank you.
